

Annual Infant Mental Health Conference:
Anchoring and Committing to Culturally Relevant Relationship Based Practice
August 5, 2016 | Indianapolis, IN

---

AGENDA

- 8:30 Registration Open
- 9:00 Welcome!
Becky Gee, M.A., IMH-E®
Angela Tomlin, PhD, HSPP, IMH-E®
Exploration of Culture
Denise Senter, M.A., LMHC
Stephan Viehweg, LCSW, IMH-E®
- 10:30 Break
- 10:45 Process of Structured Reflection
- 12:00 Lunch (included)
Networking Opportunity
- 1:00 Exploring Culture from Other Perspectives: Panel Discussion
Matthais Beier, MDiv, PhD, LMHC, Christian Theological Seminary
Maria Herrera, MD, Eskenazi Health
Monica Medina, PhD, IU School of Education
Carolina Sandlin, La Plaza
- 2:30 Break
- 2:45 Developing an Action Plan
- 4:30 Adjourn

*Please return your name badge and evaluation form to registration at the end of the conference***

6.0 Category I Credits awarded for all-day attendance, available for Social Workers, Marriage & Family Therapists, Mental Health Counselors, First Steps Providers, and Psychologists. FSCT Approved.

This 6-hour training meets the following IMH-Endorsement® Competency Areas:

- Theoretical Foundations: Cultural Competence
- Direct Service Skills: Responding with Empathy
- Working with Others: Building and Maintaining Relationships
- Reflection: Contemplation
Self-Awareness
Professional/Personal Development

Would you like to be recognized for your expertise in the field of infant mental health?
Are you interested in joining a network of providers throughout the state?
Would you like to learn where to focus future trainings and educational opportunities based on your individual strengths and weaknesses as a professional?
Contact beckygee@mhai.net today to learn about the Infant Mental Health Endorsement® credential!

Find us on Facebook! <https://www.facebook.com/IAITMH/>
Share your photos from this event using #infancyonward

Thank You to Our Sponsors and Exhibitors!

